Rules & Regulations (You may also review a larger-font version on the Instructions page of this form.):

The Applicant on this form, also named below must compete in her correct age division and go to school or reside in the state where she competes. The Applicant and parent or guardian must sign this Official Entry Form. Applicant must not have ever been married, have a child, or been pregnant. Applicant and her parents or guardian give permission for Duran Events, LLC, d.b.a. Arizona American Coed Pageants, to use her photographs, speeches, videos, etc. for publicity purposes and future pageant material. Applicant and her parents or guardian(s) agree that the decision of the judges is final and scores are confidential. The state winner must attend the National Pageant and her court will also be eligible to compete for the National Queen's Title. In consideration for being accepted as a contestant in the state pageant, we the Applicant and the parents or guardians of the Applicant individually named below do hereby release Duran Events, LLC and American Coed Pageants, it's directors, staff, employees, and servants from any and all claims and damages resulting from named Applicant participating in the state pageants of American Coed Pageants. It is agreed and understood that performance of any scholarship or grant award is solely determined by the college or agency making that award. American Coed Pageants shall have no liability with regards to such grants or scholarships either as to amounts or performance. The state pageant winner's parents or guardians will be asked to sign a contract for the year of her reign which will spell out awards and prizes as well as responsibilities of the pageant winner. If the contract is not signed in a short timeframe after the event, she will immediately forfeit her state title and all prizes, scholarships, crown, sash, and trophy. If for any reason she is disqualified or is unable to attend the national pageant, she will return all prizes, cash awards, scholarships, crown, sash, and trophy. IT IS UNDERSTOOD THAT THE SPONSORSHIP FEES ARE NON-REFUNDABLE WITHOUT EXCEPTION.

Official State Pageant Application Instructions

Please see the first page for the application you must return to the State Director.

Thank you for filling out this pageant application. We've included this instruction page for your convenience. You don't have to return it with the application. Most information requested on the application should be straight forward and easy to fill out. Please write neatly with dark ink, or type, so we don't make a mistake reading your application.

Activities & Awards: Please list activities, in order of importance – most recent and most important first. Provide year of activity or award if possible. You may attach one extra sheet if needed. Please don't write on the back of the application. For Princess contestants, list all activities where your daughter has interacted with other children or adults for example Pre-School, Sunday School, Dance Class, etc.

Other Interests & Hobbies: Please also list activities, in order of importance – most recent and most important first. You may provide particular accomplishments, collections, or studies related to these areas.

Checklist: Please notice the checklist on the application. You should complete the application, date and sign the application, enclose a photo, and enclose the registration fee.

Credit Card Payment: If you choose to use a credit card (Visa, MC, AmEx, Discover) for payment, please enter all information. The billing address and zip code are the one to which your bill is sent. The "security" code is usually printed on the back of the credit card, and is often the last set of three digits for Visa and Mastercard. American Express security codes are four digits.

Rules & Regulations: We didn't have much space to print the Rules and Regulations that you should read before signing the application. In case you don't have very good eyes or a magnifying glass, a larger copy is printed below. If you have questions about these terms or any other item on this application, please contact the State Director (contact information is on the bottom of the first page of the application).
